
Mr. Katsuhiko Yamaguchi

Mr. Katsuhiko Yamaguchi is currently Executive Officer of New Kansai International Airport Company Ltd. (NKIAC) in charge of corporate strategy, international relations and business development. He is also serving as a Visiting Researcher at the Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP), University of Tokyo.

Before coming to NKIAC, Mr. Yamaguchi was Director of General Affairs, Railway Bureau, Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism (MLIT), Government of Japan. He joined Ministry of Transport (reorganized as MLIT in 2001) in 1983 and has had broad and extensive experience in policy areas in air transport, land transport, etc. He has also served as Professor at GraSPP, University of Tokyo between 2005 and 2008.

His educational background includes Faculty of Law, University of Tokyo and Graduate School of Business Administration, University of Michigan.

Pertinent research materials are the following:

- “Evolution of Metropolitan Airports in Japan – Airport Development in Tokyo and Osaka” OECD / International Transport Forum, Discussion Paper 2013-03 (2013).
- “Cross-border integration in Northeast Asian air transport market” Pacific Economic Review, 16 (1), (2011) pp. 47-63.
- “Voluntary CO₂ emissions reduction scheme: Analysis of airline voluntary plan in Japan” Transportation Research Part D 15, (2010) pp.46-50.
- “High-speed inter-city transport system in Japan -Past, present and the future-“ OECD / International Transport Forum, Discussion Paper 2009-17 (2009). (Co-author; Kiyoshi Yamasaki)
- “International trade and air cargo: analysis of US export and air transport policy” Transportation Research Part E 44, (2008) pp.653-663.
- “Inter-regional air transport accessibility and macro-economic performance in Japan” Transportation Research Part E 43, (2007) pp.247-258.