
Vinay Dube

*Senior Vice President – Asia Pacific
Delta Air Lines*

Vinay Dube is Senior Vice President – Asia Pacific for Delta Air Lines. Vinay has overall commercial responsibility for Delta within the Asia – Pacific region. He is responsible for Delta’s strategy, competitive and financial position, sales and marketing within the region.

Most recently Vinay served as Vice President of Alliances and Industry Affairs for Delta where he had overall responsibility for Delta’s participation in SkyTeam, Delta’s Joint Venture with Air France-KLM and Delta’s interline and industry relationships. Prior to that, Vinay served as Vice President and Chief Information Officer for Delta and CEO of Delta Technology.

Vinay began his career with American Airlines as an Operations Research Analyst and soon progressed to Manager of Network Forecasting Systems. Dube then moved to Sabre Inc., a global leader in technology solutions and marketing services for the travel industry. At Sabre, Vinay held various leadership positions including Vice President of Product Management, Vice President of Sales and Account Management for EMEA, Vice President of Marketing and Strategy and Vice President of Consulting and Marketing Solutions.

Dube has a B.A. in economics and mathematics from Knox College and an M.S. in operations research from the University of North Carolina.

Originally from Mumbai, India, Dube now resides in Hong Kong with his wife and three children.